The beautiful Lake George Boathouse Bed & Breakfast is a year round B&B. Convenient access to all the exciting activities of the breathtaking Adirondack Region and offering four seasons of beauty, romance, relaxation and fun.

We provide guests with romantic getaway lodging located just minutes north of the village of Lake George, NY. The Boathouse B&B is the only B&B actually located directly on Lake George. Tranquil and refreshing, the Boathouse B&B is certain to make your getaway to the Adirondacks one you will never forget. Join us soon. You deserve it.

Built in 1917 as the summer home of speed boat racer and gold cup recipient George Reis, the term "boathouse" does not do it justice. This famous and unique Bed & Breakfast has been featured in Adirondack Life, Motor Boating and Sailing, The Great and the Gracious, Adirondack Style, and Unique Homes.

Completely renovated, this luxurious Lake George Bed & Breakfast located on Millionaires Row, with it's breathtaking views will make you feel like you've been on a cruise without ever leaving shore. Sit back, stretch your legs, sip your favorite beverage and enjoy a postcard-perfect sunset from our Adirondack Chairs. Welcome to the Boathouse.

The Adirondack Mountains...
...romantic and relaxing.

About George Reis

The most prominent Gold Cup boat of the 1930s was EL LAGARTO, "The Leaping Lizard of Lake George" (New York). Owned and driven by George Reis, EL LAGARTO was the first three-time consecutive winner of the APBA Gold Cup in 1933, 1934, and 1935.

The popular "Lizard" did much to focus positive attention on powerboat competition during the years between the World Wars.

Owner/driver Reis was a veteran boat racer whose career dated back to 1916 when he took third-place in the Gold Cup at the wheel of A.L. Judson's HAWKEYE.
